WASHINGTON -- The Guardian Angels have announced plans to patrol a crime-plagued area of the Columbia Heights neighborhood, starting Friday night.

The group's leaders said about a dozen members will focus on 14th Street in Northwest, between the Columbia Heights Metro station and Fairmount Street.

The area has been beset by robberies and shootings, including the Aug. 23 killing of 29-year-old Tayon Glover in the 1400 block of Girard Street in Northwest.
