Guardian Angels to speak at council's work session

April 24, 2008 8:06 AM

CITY OF NEWBURGH — The Guardian Angels will once again talk to Newburgh leaders about opening a chapter in the city.

The leader of the Poughkeepsie chapter is scheduled to speak during the City Council's work session at 6 p.m. today in City Hall, 83 Broadway. It's open to the public.

The Angels have tried several times in recent years to open a Newburgh chapter.

Each time, city leaders have resisted the citizen patrol group.

Now, Councilwoman Christine Bello has invited the group to speak to the council, and other members agreed.
