CITY OF NEWBURGH - Guardian Angels founder Curtis Sliwa plans to visit Newburgh this month to tell residents about his program and recruit volunteers for a new chapter.

The meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. on May 29 in the Newburgh Activity Center, 401 Washington St. Sliwa has tried unsuccessfully several times to open a city chapter, but city officials resisted.

Now he has a strong support in Councilwoman Christine Bello, and the leader of the Poughkeepsie chapter was well received by city leaders at a council meeting last month.

For more information about this month's meeting, call Bello at 561-1414.
