Guardian Angels eager

to answer questions

The Guardian Angels New Bedford chapter is on the move! Thanks to The Standard-Times, Bob Unger and especially Brian Fraga for a great story in Sunday's paper ("On patrol with the Guardian Angels," July 26). I think it clarifies things for people about the mission of the Guardian Angels.

This week, at the Mount Pleasant Street Neighborhood Association Meeting at Holy Family Holy Name Hall, we held a question and answer session for anyone interested in volunteering with the Guardian Angels, or anyone who just had questions for the organizers. Also look for us in the Portuguese Feast parade on Sunday.

Building on the success of our Saturday patrol of the North End, we will be patrolling the South End this Saturday coming! So look for the Guardian Angels to be out around Brock Avenue and the fort after dark.

We will also be meeting at the Bullard Street Neighborhood Association Meeting at Saint Anthony's Church in August, for anyone who has more concerns or questions about the Guardian Angels' involvement in our city and cannot make this month's meeting.

Anyone having questions can feel free to call me, and I will do what I can to answer them as the official "spokesangel" for the New Bedford Guardian Angels.

Thanks, and dare to care, New Bedford!

Henry Bousquet

President, Mount Pleasant Street Neighborhood Association

Second Commander,

New Bedford Guardian Angels
