

‘Meet the Angels’ at open house this afternoon

WILKES-BARRE – The local chapter of Guardian Angels will hold a “Meet the Angels” open house today.

The event will take place at the safety patrol group’s headquarters at the former White House Caf◆, 198 Hazle St., between 1 and 4 p.m. A self-defense demonstration will be given at 2 p.m., and refreshments will be served.

The nonprofit Guardian Angels take a proactive approach to preventing crime.

For further information about the open house, call 208-8900 or e-mail the Guardian Angels at wilkes-barre@guardianangels.org.
