Thursday, May 27, 2010

May 27, 2010 (CHICAGO) (WLS) -- Members of the Guardian Angels patrolled part of Chicago's North Side lakefront area Thursday night.

This week there's been a rash of gang activity around North Avenue Beach. Police arrested eight people Monday night after responding to a gang- related shooting, the assault of a jogger and a fight. That all happened in a three-hour period along the lakefront between North Avenue and Fullerton.

There was a strong police presence in the area Thursday night.
